MONDAY MORNING NOV. 9 1863

The Welcome War News

Our dispatches this morning give us cheering intelligence General Hooker has achieved a victory, which secures to him uninterrupted communication by the river, the use of two important roads and the occupation of Lookout Mountain which commands the town of Chattanooga The results are deemed of the greatest consequence, because it is believed they must inevitably tend to cause the defeat or the retreat of the rebel army under Bragg If we succeed in the great battle at Chattanooga, which must speedily be fought, a mortal wound will be inflicted on the Confederacy That place is the key to the mountains of East Tennessee, which have been termed by the rebels "the breast plate of the Confederacy and if the Federal army holds them, it can have free course and be glorified in Alabama and Georgia"

There is good news from Gilmore also Greek fire is assailing and wasting the pride the beauty and the strength of Charleston, the chief corner stone of the rebellion We shall shortly know its effect, for if its deadly shower continued but a few days, utter destruction must have followed, unless the proud city surrendered and thus saved itself from the just fate of Sodom and Gomorrah

The startling disclosures in New York, are another proof of the infernal wickedness of speculators, who make merchandise of National misery and peril We trust the guilty scoundrels, without regard to party or position, will meet with summary justice. They should be treated as spies, there has been too much lenity shown to such aiders of the rebellion, who, while professing loyalty, and holding civil and military positions, have for purposes of gain, like Judas, sold their master

We have a right to expect that we shall soon hear good news from Texas General Banks never slumbers on his oars, and it seems that he is now occupying such a position as will enable him without delay, to annihilate the rebel force on the Gulf

Dr Henry's Denial —A correspondent at Olympia, writes telling us that "Henry's card in the Times last week declaring all charges against his official integrity to be utterly false, excites much ridicule in Olympia, where the facts are well known, and where Surveyor General Tilton still resides" That is very natural, and it was very natural for Henry to make the denial, but as his word or statement is of no consequence where he is known, we did not deem his card worthy of any attention. The sublimity of his falsehood is only equalled by the meanness of his hypocrisy But then he is a Government officer, and we suppose we ought not to say any thing about him, even if he attacked us, with all the malice of his nature! So we will say no more—at present, except that we have some items in regard to his attempts to intimidate another officer, in relation to the public printing which already prove his utter unfitness to hold any official position, and we do not doubt, if made known to Mr. Lincoln, that he would be constrained to say, in spite of the "personal friendship" of which Henry boasts so much, "no more be officer of mine"

Courts —The Circuit Court, Judge Shattuck presiding, will commence its session this morning at 10 o'clock Jurors summoned are advised to be on hand, as the rule of the court in regard to attendance is very stringent and likely to be rigidly enforced

The U. S District Court of Washington Territory, will also be opened this morning at Vancouver, Hon. E P. Oliphant, presiding

It is very unfortunate that these courts should be held at the same time, as many of the members of the bar have business in both, and aside from the inconvenience to them and their clients, public interests suffer and expenses are caused, by necessary delays, which might be avoided by a different arrangement

The Court at Lafayette, in Judge Boise's district, also begins to day, and adds still further to the inconvenience We hope another Legislature will provide against those conflicts in neighboring counties so far as our State is concerned, as they certainly are not necessary, and produce much hindrance and delay.

Arrest of Renton alias "Doc Howard" in San Francisco —According to letters received in this city, it appears that several persons were arrested at San Francisco upon the arrival of the Sierra Nevada Only Renton's name is mentioned, the dispatches reading in the plural leads us to infer that he was recognized, while the others were arrested on suspicion Upon the arrival of Captain Ankeny at this place in pursuit of the murderers, the steamer had sailed, and he telegraphed to Salem, requesting the California Stage Company to dispatch a messenger to catch the stage, which had been gone three hours The Company immediately dispatched Mr Hill Beachy, who overtook the stage, and upon arriving at Yreka, telegraphed to J W Lees, Captain of San Francisco Police, requesting an answer at Shasta Upon reaching Shasta Mr Beachy found a telegram from Lees dated San Francisco Oct 30th 9 15 P M, as follows "To Hill Beachy I have arrested Renton and have found six thousand (6 000) dollars You must get down here as soon as possible or they will be discharged on habeas corpus" This was enclosed to G W Whitehouse, Esq, of the Pioneer Hotel in this city with a note dated Shasta, Oct 31st, as follows "I got here to night, and received this dispatch show it to Capt Ankeny and [illegible]" Yesterday morning Mr Whitehouse received the following additional dispatch, sent by W H Rhodehamel, dated Shasta, Nov 2d —"Dear Sir—Beachy left here for San Francisco Sunday morning, in fine spirits in regard to the capture of the parties he was in pursuit of" Thus far the efforts to arrest the murderers have been prosecuted with commendable energy and promise to be crowned with at least partial success The California Stage Company, Capt Ankeny, Hill Beachy and others who have volunteered in this matter are certainly entitled to a deal of credit for their public spirit It is now believed that the same gang perpetrated a series of murders before that for which they are now sought to be arrested

Beecher Abroad —Our despatches bear testimony to the fact that Henry Ward Beecher, who went abroad for his health solely is doing yeoman service for his country while away His keen wit which bubbles up in spite of his best Sunday intentions, in the midst of his sermons at Plymouth Church, his eloquence which never fails to hold and affect the most determined audience at home, and his genial homely earnestness combine to make him a most desirable exponent of America's best intention abroad Beecher at home was always true to the Union and the Constitution He defended the Administration in his paper and on the platform against rebels and Copperheads, and only pitched in to it for its failure to come up to his standard of political faith Abroad, no man can tempt out of him a word of confession that the Administration is not all that the wisest could desire He is not one of the sort that cry out, "Our country right or wrong," but he is of the breed that is too patriotic to face critical and carping neutrals from the platform until the country is so righted that a plea for it is a plea for the right At home he was latterly getting to be a thorn in the side of Uncle Abe, for he thought the old gentleman needed waking up Abroad his thorns will prick none but enemies of our Union His good influence upon British sentiment will be none the less welcome because he went on his own account, and sprang to the brakes because he heard a sudden call —S F Bulletin.

Assistant Provost Marshal General —We learn that Major Lugenbeel, recently appointed to perform the duties of this office for this district, has been relieved therefrom by order of the War Department, and directed to resume his command at Fort Boise

Internal Revenue Collector for Washington Territory —The only change of Federal officials on the Pacific coast which we have to note is the appointment of Phillip D Moore, Collector of Internal Revenue for Washington Territory, vice H A Goldsborough resigned —Cor Sac Union

Dates to October 31

Hooker Gains a Victory at Chattanooga.

The Rebels Driven from Lookout Mountain.

River Communication open again.

More Greek Fire for Charleston.

SHELLING THE CITY.

Prospects for a Battle in Louisiana

Operations in Texas.

Yreka, Nov 2 —The Overland line was not working yesterday

Fortress Monroe, Oct 30th —Richmond papers of the 27th say quite a severe cavalry fight is reported to have taken place at Brandy Station on the 24th in which the enemy were defeated and driven back five miles No details

The Richmond Whig of the 27th has the following

Charleston, Oct 26 —There was a considerable increase in the enemy's squadron off the harbor and Hilton Head

Houston Texas papers of the 9th September state that Sabine Pass is being rapidly put in condition to receive the enemy The gunboat Clifton captured in the recent grand victory is being put in good fighting trim The French had not taken possession of Matamoras up to the 17th September

Washington, 30 —Nothing unusual is reported from the Army of the Potomac Repairing the Alexandria railroad has been completed to Catlett's Station, and the road is being completed to Warrenton Junction—the cars being expected to reach there to morrow morning Some troops are said to be at a point where Turkey Run crosses the Warrenton railroad

New York, Oct 31 —Special dispatches to the World dated Washington, Oct 30th, say Our special correspondent writes to day that the railroad is completed to Warrenton Junction The rebels hold the burnt bridge across the Rappahannock in great force Our troops are somewhat advanced

New York Oct 31 —The Times has the following, dated Morris Island, Oct 27th Three heavy guns have been turned on Charleston, each throwing Greek fire into the heart of the city Other guns opened on the city this afternoon It was not intended at first to make a commencement of such vigorous operations, but circumstances changed the programme entirely Our batteries are also at work on Forts Johnson, Sumter and Moultrie The enemy replies resolutely to day He is evidently taken by surprise, although he has had sufficient warning Four monitors in position off Sullivan's Island, it is understood will engage the rebel works this afternoon The Ironsides shows no disposition to participate

Head Quarters Department of the South Oct 27 —A number of heavy guns in Wagner and Gregg opened on Sumter, Moultrie and Johnson yesterday morning and continued firing during the day It was resumed again this morning The range of the guns on Sumter and Johnson is one third less than before the capture of Gregg and Wagner The firing on our side was excellent, every shot being effective The enemy commenced replying about noon yesterday, but his practice was not equal to that exhibited weeks ago No casualties occurred on our side, and no damage to our works The land batteries alone engaged, the object of whose fire was to get the range of the rebel works and prevent the construction of interior batteries and mounting guns on Sumter

Washington, Oct 30th —Lookout Mountain was taken on the 28th by our troops under Hooker No serious opposition was made The river is now open to Chattanooga, with uninterrupted communication

Gen Thomas telegraphed to the War Department yesterday morning as follows

Gen Hooker was attacked at midnight and severe fighting ensued and continued two hours The conduct of the troops was splendid and the enemy were repulsed at every attack, and driven from every point he assailed The Star learns that this brilliant movement was planned and executed under the direction of Gen Smith, Chief Engineer of the Department and resulted in opening two wagon roads and giving us the river, thus relieving Gen Thomas' army from its chief embarrassment Gen Smith's operations at the mouth of Lookout Valley are spoken of as a great success

New York, Oct 31 —Gold 46¼ @ 46½

A letter from Gen Banks' headquarters dated Vermillion, Oct 15th, says that Dick Taylor is at Oppalousas with 10,000 men, mostly cavalry Kirby Smith is at Shreveport with the same number The correspondent says that we may expect news of a hard fought battle soon

New Orleans Oct 22 —The latest intelligence from the Army of the Gulf is up to yesterday, and is of a most cheering character The column under General Franklin entered Oppalousas yesterday The enemy made a stand at a distance of five miles, but were quickly driven in Our troops are well supplied, in good health, and fine spirits Our advance camp is now beyond Oppalousas The enlistment of negro troops is rapidly filling up the regiments So much of Miss is now free from guerrillas, that business is steadily increasing

New York, Oct 30th —The Whig of the 26th says that Commissioner Ould returned from an interview with Yankee Commissioner Meredith, who intimated that he had no power to negotiate for further exchange of prisoners, that Stanton had always opposed any exchange of prisoners during the war, and his policy was now the policy of the Government This will probably be a last interview unless the request for its renewal comes from the other side

Second Dispatch.

Washington Nov 2 —A special agent of the Treasury Department arrived here on business connected with the late discovery of fraud which was made in the following manner For months past the sale of prize vessels have elicited the important fact that goods on board which were intended to run the blockade were manufactured principally in New York This circumstance with others, furnished proof that vessels left that port evidently designed for the rebels It is stated that from the 10 to 12 left that port every week with this object in view In order to destroy the trade between New York and British Colonial ports bonds are laid in Custom Houses, that goods imported are to be used and consumed exclusively at their destination An official who has been suspected at the Custom House is accused of having laid bogus bonds for this purpose and of having received large sums from those intending to do so by means of false entries and lying clearances It is understood that New York was made the great market for supplying the South with all the articles needed not only for sustenance but to carry on the rebellion

New York Oct 2 —Money easy at 7 per cent Sterling quiet at 160 @ 161 Gold 48 Government stocks without change

The bank statement shows as follows Decrease of loans $790,000 Decrease of deposits $1,300,000

A special to the Tribune says I learn from the Army of the Potomac that the principal movements of late have been changes of position of the different corps These changes have been attended with slight skirmishes, but with slight loss on either side

Guerrillas continue their depredations on our wagon trains An impression prevails at head quarters that Lee is disposed to fight, and Meade's intention is to accommodate him at the earliest opportunity There are those who believe that Lee's army has been so materially reduced that he does not intend to fight, and that any show of intention to fight is to conceal his weakness

The World's Army of the Potomac despatch dated Sunday, Nov 1 says the army is located in excellent position on its line of supplies and should any contingency arise it can with equal facility be concentrated, either to advance or retreat or repel an attack of the enemy

The Herald's despatch says it is known that Meade on one side and Lee on the other is thus covering for a favorable position But the impression is that Lee will not risk a battle out of his defenses on the South side of the Rappahannock, which can be held by a small force against a great army and leave him at liberty to send a part of his force to flank an attacking party and force it to fall back to the mouth of the Rappahannock as before

Senator Nesmith Leaves —The correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Chattanooga after that great battle, says

Every moment stragglers from the field fell into the ranks as defiantly as ever, now the temporary panic was over, and wounded men hobbled by cheerfully confident that "Old Rosey" could never be thoroughly whipped Senator Nesmith who had left the field in a panic before the fight ceased on Sunday was pleased to call this state of affairs an overwhelming defeat as he passed hurriedly up the Nashville Railroad, en route to the quiet North

The Difference —What is the difference between a Copperhead and a rebel ram? One goes for the Union with an if the other goes against the Union with a but

The Ball at Vancouver —We hope our readers who can go, will remember the ball to be given at Metropolis Hall, Vancouver, on Wednesday evening, in behalf of the Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society of that place The object to be attained should induce a goodly number of our citizens to drop over on the afternoon steamer of Wednesday, have a good time, enjoy those hospitalities for which the good people of our neighbor city are accredited, and return Thursday morning with a clear and loyal conscience.

Portland Academy —We understand that the number of pupils in attendance at this school being so large as to require an additional teacher, the services of Mr Deardorf who formerly taught at Astoria have been secured He enters upon his duties to day The school has a good reputation, and an increase in its interest and progress is anticipated from the late addition to its number of teachers They can accommodate a few more pupils.

A Pleasant Sabbath —Yesterday was a [illegible]ual Sabbath day The clear air and warm [illegible] tempted from their firesides a multitude of both sexes and all ages, to enjoy a jaunt along the dry sidewalks, and without fear of bespattered dresses or muddy boots to pursue the bent of their erratic inclinations The various places of worship were unusually well attended, and it is to be hoped that all the benefits derived from the pleasant day were not of a purely temporal nature

Willamette Theatre —The performance of "Medea" on Saturday evening intensely gratified the audience, which was fair in numbers, and though the play is not so familiar as those usually presented to us, the efforts of Mrs Hayne and her assistants made it full of exciting interest To night, the performance will be the thrilling play of "East Lynne," founded on one of the most popular of modern novels, and arranged for the stage by Mrs Julia Dean Hayne She will appear in two characters, and will, we hope, be greeted by an overflowing audience. It is her last night but two

The Pacific —We learn by Capt Holman, of the Astoria mail steamer John H Couch, that the steamer Pacific made an effort to get over the bar on Friday afternoon, but in consequence of the storm and heavy sea, returned and anchored in Baker's Bay The gale having subsided, it is probable she went to sea on Saturday.

Military Visitors —The Court Martial at Vancouver having adjourned until Wednesday, many of the members availed themselves of the opportunity to spend the Sabbath in town Among them Col Steinberger, Maj. Weston, Capt Scott, 4th Cal Vol, Captains Spencer and Thompson, 1st W. T Inf. Vols, 1st Lieuts Clawson, Jester, and Hopkins, and 2d Lieut Woodson

A Distressing Headache Cured.

Cincinnati August 18, 1862

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—I have for many years been troubled with severe attacks of headache, which often reduced me to my bed My sufferings have been very great, and no one can have any idea of their severity except those who have suffered with the same disease. I took your BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, bathed my head with it, and rubbed it in well. I also took, at the same time, one half of a teaspoonful of saleratus dissolved in one-fourth of a tumbler of water. Soon after, I took a second dose of PANACEA, and it was just the thing for all the world, for it knocked the pain crazy, and I have not had the headache since, for whenever I feel it coming on I take the Panacea, which always checks it at once. A Short Practical Sermon.

BY PARSON BROWN.

My tex', bretherin and sisterin, may be found in the Bible, though I'm not goin' to tell where bouts, cause I want you to serch the scripter for yourselves. Sarch faithfully, my bretherin and sisterin, and you'll find the subject of my discourse:

"For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind; but the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly pizen."

Firstly—we'll consider what has been tamed.

Secondly—what hasn't.

Firstly, according to my tex', every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of sarpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, or hath been tamed. The great hippopotamus and the boy constructor, the whale and the sea sarpent, the eagle and the hummin' bird, the lion and the pole-cat have all been tamed, ah! Their natures have been mastered, ah! And if there's any doubtin' Thomas here, let him go to Barnum's and believe, ah! For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of sarpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed and hath been tamed, ah.

Secondly, what hasn't.

Bretherin and sisterin, my tex' says: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, and full of deadly pizen.

Bretherin, how many of you have tried to tame your your wife's tongue and found it an unruly evil?

Sisterin, how many of you have got into trouble and got your neighbor into trouble with that unruly evil full of deadly pizen?—Full of a pizen so deadly that lives had been blasted, friendships killed, characters murdered, and the days made to drop one by one like withered apples, ah. Better not, my brethren; better not, my sisterin, you only stir up the wildest natur, the pizenest venom of that unruly evil, ah. Better to keep your own securely caged, ah. It'll break loose when you least 'spect it, ah. It isn't as trusty as a fox, ah. It's dangerouser than a wild beast, ah. "For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of sarpents, and of things in the sea is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind; but the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly pizen, ah. While we sing, "Together let us sweetly live," the deacon will please pass the hat, and if the bretherin and sisterin are poorty liberal, I'll preach here again two weeks from to-day.

New Game of Roulette.—"Inigo" tells in the Golden Era the following good story of the game a Georgian friend of his once tried to beat:

He lived in Selma, but went North to one of the big cities one summer season to see the lions, and find the Tiger.

He tried the Tiger, and didn't like it, and thought he'd take a shy at a game familiar to him by name, only called Roulette.

One turn of Roulette, you know, makes the whole world kin!

He started out in quest of the game, only knowing that Roulette had something to do with roll, but entirely ignorant whether that roll was a French or Dutch one.

On the first corner he met a barrel organ man grinding away for dear life. He was turning as though he had only a few moments to turn in and didn't want to die before his work was completed. The tune was "The Bold Privateer."

My Georgian friend thought he'd found his game. Stepping briskly up he laid a dollar bill down on the box. The organ man's eyes opened—he bagged the bill and ground away with renewed vigor. My Georgian friend thought he had lost and "doubled up," laying down a two dollar bill. That was bagged, also, and the barrel of the organ went whirling around as though there were seven devils inside it.

To make a long story short, the thing went on, and the Georgian "doubled up"—the organ grinder pocketing the money all the time—until he had "nary" another dollar left.

But he didn't complain. As he saw the last of his currency bagged by the delighted organ grinder he simply remarked: "Well, of all the games I ever bucked against, that is the dog gondest! Guess I'll jump it," and left.

"Johnny, get your dictionary, and tell me what the word Democrat means," said an old Vallandighammer to his hopeful.

The son complied, and soon read as follows. "Democrat—n—One who adheres to a government by the people, or favors the extension of the right of suffrages to all classes of men."

"Hold on, John, does it say all classes of men?"

"Yes dad."

"Who is the maker of the dictionary?"

"Webster."

"Oh, that blasted old Whig! I always thought he was sort of favoring the niggers! Johnny, you needn't read that dictionary any more. I'll see about getting the right kind when I next go to town."

Clerical Joke.—A dignified clergyman possessor of a coal mine, respecting which he was about to have a law suit, sent for an attorney in order to have his advice. The lawyer was curious to see a coal pit, and was let down by a rope. Before he was lowered, he said to the parson: "Doctor, your knowledge is not confined to the surface of the world but you have likewise penetrated to its inmost recesses. How far may it be from this to hell?" "I don't know exactly," answered he, gravely, "but if you let go your hold, you'll be there in a minute."

The man who makes a joke without intending it frequently amuses us more than the most ingenious of professional jokers,—as when the milkman in the play is charged with putting calves' brains in his milk he answered, "Brains! I never had such a thing in my head!" It was the same sort of a case when a juryman having asked the judge to excuse him from serving on account of deafness, the latter said, "Couldn't you hear my charge to the grand jury?" "Yes, I heard it said the man, "but I couldn't make any sense of it."

An English maiden, whom we lately heard of had a decidedly novel reason for refusing to stand in the Scripture relation of wife to a man who sought her hand. He was in all respects eligible, except that he was a vegetarian, and when he proposed the plucky lass replied: "Oh, go along with you! Do you think I am going to be flesh of your flesh, and you live on cabbage? Marry a grass widow man, I'm not an animal of your sort!" and off she bounced, leaving him all stuck up.

An American gentleman in London was recently interrogated about the climate of the United States by an Englishman, who on being informed that it was sometimes cold and sometimes warm, said, "You can't deceive me. I've heard of your icebergs at Montreal, Mobile, and your other large cities you know!"

Jones complained of a bad smell about the Post Office, and asked Brown what it could be. Brown didn't know, but suggested that it might be caused by "the dead letters."

The Portland Courier has heard of two ladies in that city who have had the courage to appear without hoops. There are hundreds of ladies in Boston who have repudiated a stupid fashion in the same way.—Boston Journal.

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCULOUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,

Universal Lassitude of the	Muscular System,

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say, that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS.

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which

invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS

Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.
